

Angeeta Whittemore

August 21, 1925 - December 26, 2017

Angeeta "Ann" B. Cook Whittemore Ann Whittemore, age 92, of Johnson City, went to be with her heavenly father on December 26, 2017. She fought the fight and kept the faith (II Tim. 4:7). She won the battle against pancreatic cancer and the Whipple procedure in 1995. She lost her final battle to pancreatitis with complications. She earned her BS and MA at ETSU. She achieved Level 3 on the Tennessee Teacher Career Ladder. However, the greatest testimony to her teaching ability was when her former students requested that their child be placed into her classroom. She began her teaching career in a 3 room schoolhouse in rural Virginia. There was a pot belly stove to keep them warm on chilly days, especially important after a trip to the outhouse. Several times during that school year, she would bring 6 of her student's home to spend the night. Not much sleeping was done on those nights to be sure, but many wonderful memories were created with those first and second graders. In Tennessee, she taught at Ross N. Robinson, Asbury Elementary and Boones Creek Elementary. She taught school for 38 years and retired 3 weeks before her 70th birthday due to health issues. She attended The Bible Church where she taught the adult Sunday School Class for many years. She is survived by her daughters: Pat Cook Whitmire (Maurice), and Linda Cook Webb (RC), both of Johnson City; 3 grandchildren Cynthia Whitmire Dudash (Robbie), Jim Webb (Angie), and Lisa Webb DVM; and 1 great grandson Nicholas Webb. Her special furry friends, Bebe and Buddy, brought much joy to her life. She was preceded in death by husbands Willard Cook and Earl Whittemore; her parents Goble and Missouri Branham; siblings Clayton Branham, Ivory Stanley, Elwood Branham, and Josh Branham. The family would like to give special thanks to her caregivers Betty Younce, Ashley Shockton, Deborah Riffe, and Arlette DeMelo for their tender, loving care of our mother. We would also like to thank Dr. Rachel Monderer for saving mother's life in 1995 and her continued care and support. Appalachian Funeral Home, E. Watauga Avenue, Johnson City, is in charge of arrangements. Friends will be received on Thursday, December 28th from 5PM to 7PM. Funeral services will be conducted by Dr. Reggie Weems on Friday, December 29th at 1:00PM. Burial will follow immediately at Monte Vista Cemetery on Oakland Avenue. The family requests no flowers but a donation to the Humane Society of Washington County would be appreciated. Order Flowers Service Details Friday, December 29th, 2017

“ While words fail to capture the pain of losing a loved one, we look forward to the time when words will fail to capture the joy of having our heavenly Father return your dear one to you. May you find comfort in knowing that your dear one is safe in the memory of God, who will remember every detail about her and bring her back again. (John 5:28, 29)

“ I am so sorry for you loss. My mother wad Delores Ann Whittemore Scott. You may remember her as Susie Whittemore. She was the oldest child of Theodore (Dick) and Irene Whittemore. Mom had two brothers, Tom and Jim Whittemore. It was hard loosing her on January 4, 2017. Nothing takes away the heartache of loosing a parent, but I think it helps a little to know she is no longer suffering and is in a much Finer place. I have lived in NC for 47 years, but vaguely remember Uncle Earl and Aunt Ann. Please know you are in our prayers.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bibles' word at Philippians 4:7 which reads "and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus". I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons
